

In Literacy we will:

- Read winter stories and non-fiction books
- Create fact books about penguins and polar bears
- Draw the characters from stories
- Mark making using pencils, crayons, brushes and shaving foam.

In Understanding the World we will:

- Investigate melting ice
- Learn about Chinese New Year
- Look at different habitats
- Observe the weather

In Maths we will:

- Use some number names and number language in our play
- Count penguins/polar bears
- Use shapes to make animals/igloo
- Subitise group of polar animals

Nursery

Ice and Snow and Animals

In Expressive Arts and Design we will:

- Make igloos using recycling materials
- Learn winter rhymes
- Make up stories using our imagination

In Religious Education we will:

- Talk about the Holy Family
- Learn the song: 'When Jesus was a little boy'
- Answer questions about Mary, Joseph and Jesus

In Physical Development we will:

- Experiment with different ways of moving
- Develop fine motor skills
- Practise putting on winter clothes (coat, gloves, hat, boots)
- Learn how to keep warm and safe in winter

In Personal and Social Development we will:

- Talk about emotions (sad, happy, excited, surprised)
- Learn how to be kind and helpful
- Learn how to share and take turns

In Communication and Language we will:

- Talk about Polar animals using whole sentences.
- Listen and retell stories
- Ask questions