

In Literacy we will:

- Focus on blending and segmenting our phonics sounds for effective reading and writing
- Learn the difference between fiction and non-fiction books
- To write labels and captions
- To record observations and investigations

In Understanding the world we will:

- Learn about animals in different climates
- Celebrate Chinese New Year
- Investigate freezing and melting
- Observe changes in natural world around us

In Maths we will:

- Work on number formation and representing numbers
- Learn about number zero
- Adding groups altogether, combining
- Counting back, taking one away

Reception

Animals and Environments:

Lost and Found When will it be Spring Giraffes can't

In Expressive Arts and Design we will:

- Make paper snowflakes
- Learn seasonal rhymes
- Make and decorate paper lanterns

In Religious Education we will:

- Talk about the Holy Family
- Learn about important events in Jesus' childhood
- Reflect on Jesus' great love for us and how he is our friend

In Physical Development we will:

- Experiment with different ways of moving using apparatus
- Develop balance and control
- Work on jumping and landing from different levels
- Discuss how to keep warm and safe in Winter – focus on fastening buttons and zips!

In Personal and Social Development we will:

- Internet safety (Smarty the Penguin)

- Talk about emotions (sad, happy, worried, angry, excited, surprised)
- Learn how to be kind and helpful
- NSPCC PANTS lesson; my body is mine!

In Communication and Language we will:

- Talk about animals and habitats using appropriate scientific vocabulary
- Learn and apply language of melting and freezing
- Talk about significant life events