

In English we will be writing biographies, answering comprehension questions to develop reading skills and will learn poetry by heart. Grammar- sentence punctuation, adverbs, adjectives, speech marks, paragraphs Mrs Hutton and I will continue to listen to the children read to help them develop fluency and confidence.

Class novel -The Wild Robot by Peter Brown

In History we will be finding out about significant inventors and learning about the development of communication including; medieval writing, the printing press, the telegraph, the telephone and the invention of the World Wide Web.

In Geography we will be using Digimap -the online mapping site for Ordnance Survey to measure distance and develop map reading skills

Poetry –The Sound Collector -Roger McGough, The Computer's First Christmas Card -Edwin Morgan

SSh by Jeanne Wills

Biographies of Tim Berners-Lee, Guglielmo Marconi, Ada Lovelace and William Caxton

Topic Title Communication

In Science we will be learning about sound and how it is caused by vibration. We will also be learning about electricity, making simple circuits. In Computing we will learn stop frame animation.

In Art we will be looking at Salvador Dali, Leonardo Da Vinci and Eric Joyner

We will be printing with a 15th C medium of soot and oil; sketching, painting and digital printing

In Design Technology we will investigate sound and use electrical circuits to make a Morse Code machine and a robot

Platinum Jubilee picnic – 25th May p.m.

Sports Day for Yr 3&4 28th June a.m.