

Year 5 enjoyed expressing their feelings through Art this week. They listened to some stories and music to help them think about their feelings and how to voice their worries or concerns. They chose different ways to create artwork about feelings. Here are some of their ideas.

We also worked on letters from our poem Timothy Winters, learned about the Sacrament of Reconciliation and identified how gears can work inside clockwork toys.